PETITION

In the office of the Court Clerk MARILYN WILLIAMS

Comes now Plaintiff, Christian Martin Boyle, Pro Se and for his Causes of Action against Defendant, Fedex Corp., d/b/a Fedex Express Corporation, alleges and states the following:

PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff is a citizen of Oklahoma residing in Cleveland County, Oklahoma.
2. Defendant is a business entity incorporated under the laws of the State of Delaware doing business in various counties including Cleveland County, Oklahoma.
3. This action arises due to Defendant's violation of Plaintiff's rights guaranteed under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 29 U.S.C. section 621 et seq, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 as amended and retaliation for complaining of protected activity.

GENERAL FACTS

4. Plaintiff is a fifty nine year old male.
5. Plaintiff began employment with Defendant on or about 1984.

6. Plaintiff suffered job related health problems resulting in a need to enter the Defendant's Rehabilitation Program and was terminated upon completion of that program. Defendant provided misinformation and omitted other relevant information and in so doing made it impossible for Plaintiff to meet performance goals and requirements. Part of the omitted information was to not mention the possibility of filing a Workers' Compensation claim to compensate Plaintiff for the job related stress resulting in the need to enter Defendant's Rehabilitation Program. Defendant allowed other employees to meet performance goals and requirements by fraudulently reporting deliveries or failure to deliver items to customers and reporting items destroyed. Defendant justified its action based on statistics that did not account for things beyond the control of Plaintiff such as storms that delayed the arrival of packages that were late before they were delivered into the control of Plaintiff. Many actual late deliveries were the result of delays imposed at the gates of Tinker Airforce base. These delays were necessary because of the need for enhanced security in this age of world wide terrorism. Defendant, ratified the actions of its personnel who supervised Plaintiff by calling him "Tinker Boy", and who responded to inquiries as to how to solve the problems to ask other employees how they met goals and requirements, by violating company policies and falsely reporting customer packages lost or destroyed. Defendant failed to properly exhaust its own in house administrative remedies. Defendant withheld Plaintiff's paycheck until Plaintiff paid an overpayment.
7. Defendant terminated Plaintiff on March 8, 2017.
8. Plaintiff was fifty nine years old at the time of his termination.
9. At all times, Defendant's employees, supervisors and agents were acting within the scope of their employment. Defendant knew or should have known of the acts of its representatives, discriminated against Plaintiff because of his age, sex, physical impairment and for reporting violations of the law and wrongfully terminated Plaintiff.

10. Plaintiff timely filed a Charge of Discrimination with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission on March 27, 2018 alleging disparate treatment and disparate impact pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990
11. Plaintiff was issued a Notice of Right to Sue on March 8, 2018, which is more than 180 days after the filing of the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Charge of Discrimination. Plaintiff has exhausted his administrative remedies. Plaintiff previously filed this action and Defendant removed the case to the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma. The case was dismissed without prejudice and this case is now being timely refiled.

Defendant knew such promises were false and were made with the intent and purpose to deceive Plaintiff, the general public, and all others similarly situated, and to induce them to purchase and accept the protection of the promises, representations and policies. Defendant further knew Plaintiff believed such representations, promises and policies to be true and that Plaintiff would and did justifiably rely on such promises.

28. As a direct and proximate result of the conduct of Defendant, Plaintiff has sustained substantial compensable losses, including benefits withheld, and economic losses, such as attorney fees, loss of credit, interest on borrowed money, travel and other incidental expenses, loss of salary and has suffered embarrassment, humiliation, physical, severe mental and emotional distress and discomfort, all to Plaintiff's detriment and damage in an amount in excess of $10,000.00.
